P&AB's Privacy Practitioners' Workshop and Ninth Annual National Conference Managing the Privacy Revolution 2003

Omni Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D.C. – March 12-13-14, 2003

Sponsorship/Exhibitor Information

If your organization develops privacy software for business, publishes privacy publications and materials, offers biometric or other identifiers and authentication solutions, or provides consumer, HR, and other privacy consulting services, then P&AB's Ninth Annual National Conference, "Managing the Privacy Revolution 2003," has the audience that is vital to your company's success. To help maximize your investment and gain exposure at this event, a wide array of marketing tools, exhibit and sponsorship opportunities are available – each designed to meet your specific business need. Information is available at www.pandab.org.

Press

Members of the working press are invited to attend March 13-14, 2003 only; press may not attend the PLG Privacy Practitioners' Workshop March 12. Contact Irene Oujo for a press credential application at ioujo@pandab.org or (201) 996-1154.

Continuing Legal Education Credits

Attention Lawyers: Past conference attendees have received Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits. Since each state's requirements differ, P&AB will not submit your materials, but stands ready to assist you with your application.

Hotel Reservations

P&AB has locked in a special rate of $155 per night at the Omni Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C. Attendees are individually responsible for the payment of their rooms and should make reservations directly with the hotel at (202) 234-0700. Reservations must be made on or before Tuesday, February 18 to ensure this special P&AB rate. Be sure to mention that you'll be attending Privacy & American Business' Ninth Annual National Conference.
